

TURKISH DELEGATES FINALLY MEET MOST OF DEMANDS OF BALKAN ALLIES

PRACTICALLY CEDE WHOLE OF TURKISH DOMINIONS TO VICTORIOUS NATIONS

Through Rechad Pasha The Turkish Government Agrees to Cede Almost All Territory Between Adrianople And Con- stantinople to Allies

LONDON, JAN. 1.—After their protracted diplomatic skirmishing the Turks finally capitulated to the majority of demands of the Balkan allies at a day's session of the peace conference in St. James Palace. Through Rechad Pasha they agreed to cede practically the whole of the Ottoman Empire's European dominions, except Adrianople and the territory between it and Constantinople to their victors, but tradition despised neighbors.

The terms of the Turkish delegates presented to the conference as a counter proposal to the demands of the allies, were:

FIRST. Rectification of the Turco-Bulgarian frontier by making the boundary west of the line now occupied by the troops of the allies in the vilayet of Adrianople.

Second. The question of the status of Adrianople to be settled by Turkey and Bulgaria direct.

Third. The cession of the remainder of European Turkey, including Janina and Scutari, to the allies.

Fourth. The Alban and Cretan questions to be solved by the powers.

Fifth. The Aegean Islands to remain Turkish.

The announcement of these terms was wrung from the Ottoman delegates with the greatest difficulty.

They came only after Rechad Pasha had reiterated Turkey's desire to shift responsibility for adjudicating all the vital questions to the great powers and the representatives of the allies and registered their unchangeable objections to such a course and plainly had given the Turks to understand that the failure of the Ottoman delegates to embark upon serious negotiations would mean a resumption of hostilities in southeastern Europe.

To day's sitting was the most momentous and exciting since the beginning of the conference. The Greek Premier, M. Venizelos, presided and invited Rechad Pasha to present the Turkish counter-proposals as the Turks last Monday had agreed to do.

Rechad said his interpretation of the badly transmitted telegrams early in the week had been correct his government proposing to submit all questions at issue except Adrianople to settlement by the powers. This caused an outburst of indignation which M. Venizelos was hardly able to put down. Several of the delegates shouted that it was not dignified to turn vital matters into a joke, while others observed that they had not come all the way to London and remained here for two weeks to hear a proposition advanced which might have been made at the time the armistice was signed.

When relative calm was restored, M. Venizelos, Dr. S. Daneff, leader of the Bulgarian delegation, M. Novakovich, Serbian and M. Myusko, each for his respective country, declared that they would not accept the proposed mediation by the powers and insisted that the Turkish delegates present a practical and defined proposal.

Daneff declared it would be impossible for Bulgaria to renounce her claim to the possession of Adrianople, that she would not treat alone with Turkey and that the allies would stand together to the end.

A long discussion followed and then Rechad declared whether the allies were ready to discuss peace on the basis of the Turkish proposals of to day. M. Venizelos replied that he desired Rechad to put in writing and deliver to allies the text of his propositions so that they might return a written answer. Thereupon the sitting was suspended.

KILLED BY TRAIN WHILE CROSSING TRESTLE.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 1.—Eugene W. Dahl, traveling freight agent of the Grand Trunk railroad, and his young son, were instantly killed when they were hit by a train on the Cincinnati, Lebanon & Northern railroad tracks at Pleasant Ridge, a suburb, late today. Mr. Dahl and his son were following Mrs. Dahl and her father, G. G. Carlson of Chicago, along the tracks and were crossing a trestle when the train bore down upon them. Mrs. Dahl and her father narrowly escaped death.

PROPOSES NEW POLICY.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 1.—State Treasurer-elect William Ryan, Jr., of Danville, was in Springfield today. Mr. Ryan had nothing to say regarding the policy to be followed in the conduct of his office. However, Treasurer Mitchell received a letter during the day from George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago, one of Mr. Ryan's bondsmen, stating that the treasurer-elect had changed his plan in regard to calling in state funds from the various Illinois banks in which such funds are on deposit.

"The new treasurer," says Mr. Reynolds, "will be content, for the present at least, to allow the state funds to remain where they are."

BRILLIANT RECEPTION GIVEN BY THE GOVERNOR

RECEPTION HELD BY GOVERNOR AND MRS. DENEEN

Is Eighth and Last New Year's Reception to be Given by Present State Executive in His Official Capacity as Governor of Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., JAN. 1.—The eighth and last New Year's reception to be held by Governor and Mrs. Deneen in their official capacity as governor and first lady of the state of Illinois, gave to Springfield today one of the most brilliant social functions ever held in the capital. Full dress uniforms of officers of the Illinois National Guard scattered about the spacious halls of the executive mansion, gave to the affair a military aspect which served to enhance the splendor of the scene.

Among the guests during the day were officers of the state militia, state employees and state officers. During the morning, officers of the National Guard and state officials and employees paid their respects to the governor and Mrs. Deneen. Officers of the National Guard acted as an escort for the governor to the St. Nicholas hotel, where they gave a luncheon in his honor. In a brief speech at the close of the luncheon, Governor Deneen praised the efficiency of the national guard and the naval reserves. He stated that during his eight years' administration he had called the national guard out for duty nine times, more than all the governors since the civil war. The fact that in no locality in the state is there ill feeling towards the state militia, is due, in the opinion of the governor, to the manner in which the troops deport themselves. The reception to the general public was held during the afternoon. Those assisting Governor and Mrs. Deneen in receiving were:

Lieutenant Governor John G. Oglesby and his mother, Mrs. Richard Oglesby; Auditor and Mrs. J. S. McCullough; State Treasurer Mitchell; Secretary of State and Mrs. C. J. Doyle; Superintendent of Public Instruction and Mrs. Francis G. Blair; Mrs. Mary P. Deneen, mother of the governor, and Miss Florence Deneen, his sister.

Each guest was presented by Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson.

BREAKS GROUND FOR MACHINERY BUILDING

San Francisco, Jan. 1.—One hundred thousand persons witnessed to day the breaking of the ground for the Machinery Building which will be the largest structure at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, and the first on which work will be begun. In the ceremonies all the perfection of modern invention was represented. Five hundred automobiles paraded, submarines drove beneath the surface of Harborview Water, and tow airplanes swooped down over the multitude and came to earth at the scene of the ground breaking. One thousand school children who marched to the scene, sang in chorus.

WILL USE NO LIQUOR AT FRATERNITY BANQUETS

Chicago, Jan. 1.—In keeping with a resolution passed yesterday, the only kind of liquor refreshment served at the Phi Delta Theta fraternity banquet here tonight was water.

The organization seeks to discourage the use of liquor at all its banquets.

High school fraternities were severely criticized by several speakers tonight. The members of these organizations were charged with aping the college fraternities and accomplishing no real good. Plans were made to take up the proposition of making and active fight on the high school fraternities at the business meeting of the organization to morrow.

PROVIDE FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Carrying out the Democratic platform pledge, Majority Leader Wagner of the senate and Assemblyman Gildberg tonight introduced a concurrent resolution providing for woman suffrage. The resolution is substantially the same as adopted last year in the assembly and defeated in the senate. In offering the resolution, Leader Wagner, who fought the measure last year, explained that he was still opposed to equal suffrage and was fathering the resolution merely because the party platform advocated the presentation of the question to the voters of the state.

SEEK METHOD TO SUBPOENA ROCKEFELLER

New York, Jan. 1.—The Puff committee investigating the so-called "money trust" will be asked to morrow to consider the advisability of issuing an attachment empowering deputy sergeants-at-arms of the house of representatives and private detectives in their employ to force their way into the Fifth avenue mansion of William Rockefeller and subpoena him to appear as a witness before the committee in Washington. This was the announcement made late tonight by Charles F. Riddell, sergeant-at-arms of the house, after fruitless efforts by his deputies and detectives to find Mr. Rockefeller and serve him with a subpoena.

LEADERS CONFER ON PLANS FOR SESSION

BOTH HOUSES WILL CONVERSE AT NOON TODAY FOR WORK

Representative Underwood and Senator Martin Talk Over Business to Come Before Congress Before Short Session Adjourns.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 1.—Representative Underwood and Senator Martin, Democratic leaders respectively of the house and senate had a conference over plans for Democratic revision and for legislation work during the balance of the short session that re-opens tomorrow. No definite plan of action was agreed upon, but the Democratic leaders discussed in detail President-elect Wilson's tariff views. Both houses will reconvene at noon tomorrow. Into the congestion of legislation, investigation, hearings and the Archbald impeachment proceedings the Democratic forces will bring during the next few weeks the full scope of tariff revision preparation and party organization for the special session that is to begin probably about March 15th.

Representative Underwood has not discussed publicly the details of his conference with President-elect Wilson but it is known that the general plan of the tariff revision was gone over. In the meetings to begin this week, the Democratic members of the ways and means committee, the opinions of the president-elect and the general understanding arrived at between him and Mr. Underwood will be considered fully, and an outline made of the various tariff revision bills that will be prepared in advance for the special session. The tariff hearings begin next Monday and the large volume of mail received from manufacturers, commercial organizations and consumers indicates a wide-spread interest in the woolen, chemical and iron and steel tariff schedules. Scores of men representing the producing and manufacturing interests of the country are expected to give their tariff views to the ways and means committee.

While the Archbald impeachment trial will reopen in the senate Friday the principal business of congress will not be resumed until Monday.

The money trust investigation, the tariff hearings and other important committee work will then be added to the pressure incident in getting the big appropriation bill finished before March 4th.

At the informal Democratic conference today it was agreed that the appropriation bills had made such progress that there probably will be no difficulty in passing all of them before adjournment. The problem connected with the confirmation of President Taft's appointments will be taken up in the senate again soon after it reconvenes and a majority of senators express the opinion that a solution will be found that will allow at least some of the appointments now proceeding to be acted on. Thus far the Democrats have successfully postponed confirmation all but one or two appointments made since Dec. 2nd. Senator Martin who also is chairman of the committee appointed at the recent Democratic caucus to take up the appointment fight said today that he would call the committee together within a few days to formulate a plan of Democratic action. As a rule, Democratic senators express the opinion that comparatively few of the president's appointments should receive confirmation but there are appreciable breaks in the ranks. A growing number of Democrats favor a discriminatory system that would permit confirmation of many of the appropriations now before the senate. A fight is being directed against the new industrial commission the nine members of which were appointed a few weeks ago by President Taft. Although "senatorial courtesy" would ordinarily bring about the speedy confirmation of Senator Sutherland's appointment as chairman, Democratic leaders are fighting all the appointments on the ground that the new commission's investigation of industrial conditions will run through two or three years of President Wilson's term. Should President Taft send in the appointment of Col. George W. Goethals as governor of the Panama canal under the new law, it will undoubtedly meet with opposition.

DARE'S LIFE THREATENED IN ANONYMOUS LETTER

New Castle, Ind., Jan. 1.—Frank Dare of New Lisbon, foreman of the jury in the federal court at Indianapolis that convicted the thirty-eight defendants in the dynamite conspiracy trial, today received an anonymous communication threatening his life. The letter was not signed and was mailed from Chicago. It read as follows:

"Frank Dare,
"New Lisbon, Ind.,
"Sir: This is to inform you that you will be placed under the sod within the next three months."
The letter will be turned over to the federal authorities at Indianapolis.

UNION OFFICIALS BEGIN TERMS

ENTER PRISON TO SERVE FROM ONE TO SEVEN YEARS

Thirty-Three Officials of Iron Workers' Union Begin New Year by Entering Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., JAN. 1.—Frank M. Ryan, president of the Structural Iron Workers' International union; Herbert S. Hockin, formerly secretary of the union, and thirty-one other labor leaders, convicted of conspiracy to dynamite non-union buildings, today began the new year by entering the federal prison to serve terms of from one to seven years.

Each labor leader was numbered, clothed in prison garb and with one exception, assigned to cells in pairs.

Alone of all the others, the man who occupied a cell to himself was Hockin, sentenced to six years as the leader and "betrayer" of the conspiracy. It was Hockin who was accused before jury of having first hired Ortie E. McManigal to do dynamiting, of keeping out part of McManigal's pay allowed for each "job" by the iron workers' executive board and then finally turning over to the government much of the evidence upon which his fellows were convicted. When the prisoners were lined up together Hockin always walked alone. As the new prisoners entered the dining hall to eat their first meal at noon the prison orchestra struck up its daily musical program, and a flood of sunshine streaming into the brilliantly white place, gave a bit of cheer to the scene.

Tomorrow the prisoners are to be talked to regarding their preferences to the kind of work they would like to pursue. Most of the men being iron workers it is expected they are to be given outdoor work in new buildings in construction about the prison plant.

WORLD'S GOLD PRODUCTION INCREASES OVER LAST YEAR

Washington, Jan. 1.—The world's production of gold during 1912, was $5,500,000 greater than in 1911, the total having been $465,000,000 according to a preliminary estimate announced today by George E. Roberts, director of the mint. Gold production in United States amounted to $91,815,000 compared with $96,890,000 in 1911.

The increase of gold in the monetary stock of the United States in 1912 was approximately $90,000,000. The gold holdings of the United States treasury increased about $70,000,000, chiefly in bullion represented in the circulation by certificates.

The production of silver in the United States during 1912 amounted to 62,368,974 fine ounces compared with 60,399,400 fine ounces in 1911.

FACE WASH LEADS TO ARREST OF SUSPECT

Chicago, Jan. 1.—In a cell at the Chicago avenue police station tonight, Angelo Garcolo bemoaned the New Year's resolution that caused him to wash his face. It got him into jail.

Garcolo who was known to the police approached two detectives on the street today and instantly remarked that he looked peculiar. Then they noticed his face was much cleaner than usual. Immediately the policemen became suspicious and went over to Garcolo's house to search it. They found a case of toilet soap, a case of shoes and a case of underclothing. Neither Garcolo nor his father could explain satisfactorily the source of the goods so they were arrested. Police declare the goods were stolen from Allis, a suburb of Milwaukee.

SHERMAN RESIGNS.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 1.—Judge Lawrence V. Sherman, president of the state board of administration, today in a letter to Governor Deneen tendered his resignation to become effective as soon as his successor is appointed. Judge Sherman who has been head of the board since January 1910 will engage in the practice of law.

CONSERVATIVES RESIGN.

Madrid, Jan. 1.—Practically all the Conservative senators and deputies today resigned their seats, following the lead of Senor Maura, their leader who announced that he purposed to retire from public life. The resignations are attributed to vexation at the solution of the cabinet crisis in favor of the Liberals. It is believed that all the Conservative members of the provincial and municipal councils throughout the country also will resign.

WILSON WOULD FOLLOW IN SULZER'S FOOTSTEPS

PRESIDENT ELECT WANTS INAUGURATION WITHOUT POMP.

Simplicity is to Be the Key Note of the Next Inauguration at the White House if it is Possible to So Arrange the Ceremonies.

PRINCETON, N. J., JAN. 1.—Governor Woodrow Wilson intimated tonight that if it were possible he would like to go afoot between the white house and capitol when he takes the oath of office as president of the United States on March 4th. He realizes, however, that the crowds would make it impossible and that he probably will have to ride in a parade as have all recent presidents. Jeffersonian simplicity, the kind that the president-elect would like to have he remarked consisted not of a horse back ride as some historians have chronicled it, but an unostentatious walk down Pennsylvania avenue in company of a few citizens.

"The story that Jefferson rode on horseback to the capitol and hitched his horse to a post while he went in to take the oath of office isn't true," the governor said. He was told that Governor Sulzer had walked to the capitol at Albany and had abolished the parade. Mr. Wilson spoke approvingly of this.

The president-elect was questioned as to whether he thought it would be an added convenience to members of congress to know just how soon after the closing of the present session of congress they would have to re-assemble for an extra session. He indicated that one of the very first acts of his administration would be to announce the date of the new session and that the interval between March 4th, and the assembly of the extra session would be brief.

GREAT CROWDS AT PRESIDENT TAFT'S RECEPTION

Last Reception of Present Executive at White House Attracts Greatest Crowd Ever Gathered at Mansion.

WASHINGTON, JAN. 14.—President Taft's last New Year's reception at the white house attracted today one of the greatest crowds that ever has gathered at executive mansion. Surrounded by his family, the members of his cabinet and a distinguished company, the president received officials and citizens of high and low degree, and when the last caller had been greeted Mr. Taft had shaken hands with more than 7,000 persons. The reception began shortly before noon, members of the cabinet and the diplomatic corps being received first. Next were the justices of the United States supreme court and other federal courts, United States ambassadors and ministers, senators and representatives, army and navy officers, a long line of other officials and members of the military societies and other organizations. Then came the public.

The white house reception always the New Year's day feature in the capital was followed by numerous other brilliant affairs. Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox entertained the members of the diplomatic corps at breakfast at the Pan-American building, nearly every foreign nation with embassy of legation here being represented.

SEVEN DIE WHEN HEAVY FREIGHT CRASHES THROUGH WEAK BRIDGE

GOVERNOR SULZER IGNORES PRECEDENT

INAUGURATION OF NEW YORK EXECUTIVE VERY SIMPLE

All Pomp Usually Incident to Such an Occasion Was Lacking in Ceremonies—No Military Demonstration or Salute is Given.

ALBANY, JAN. 1.—Precedents of years standing were ignored, and others created today during the inauguration of William Sulzer of New York as Democratic governor of the empire state.

All the pompous display usually incident to such occasions were lacking; this at the governor's own request. There was no military demonstrations; no governor's salute of nineteen guns to announce the change of administration; no parade of civic and political bodies; nothing in fact to feature the induction into office of the state's chief executive except a notable gathering of prominent people and the carrying out of the procedure provided by the constitution.

The new governor in his desire for simplicity insisted upon walking from the executive mansion to the capitol, refusing to ride in a carriage which had been provided. After the ceremonies he inaugurated a new feature by appearing on the front steps of the capitol and addressing the thousands who were unable to witness the ceremonies inside.

Governor Sulzer took the constitutional oath of office in the assembly chamber of the capitol. It was lavishly decorated with flags, bunting and patriotic emblems and provided with seats for more than a thousand persons.

In his inaugural address the new executive pledged an "honest and efficient and economic and business-like administration," and was greeted with prolonged applause when he said:

"The people know that an ounce of performance is worth a ton of promise, and they will judge my administration not by what I say now but what I do hereafter."

The popular election of United States senators was the principal recommendation made by Governor Sulzer in his message to the legislature which convened tonight.

MT. STERLING HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATED BY LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Brown County Basketball Team Taken Into Camp by Score of 26 to 20—Other Notes of "Y."

The Y. M. C. A. defeated the Mt. Sterling High school in basketball Wednesday night by a score of 26 to 20. The game was very close throughout, the score at the end of the first half being 13 to 10. Good team work was shown on both sides and the fact that the teams were so evenly matched made the contest exciting and interesting. Twenty minute halves were played. Duncan of Mt. Sterling was referee and W. Boxell was umpire. The Y. M. C. A. will play Mt. Sterling a return game February 5.

The lineup:
Mt. Sterling—Sampson, c; Turner and Butler, f; Evans and Gross, g.
Y. M. C. A.—Newman, c; Osborne, Frye, Johnson, f; Walker, McCrackin and Waterfield, g.

The game with Mt. Sterling was the closing number on the program of "open house," which was observed at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday. It has been the custom for several years to make New Year's day annual visitors' day for the association. Many of the young men and their friends assembled in the building and enjoyed the afternoon and evening.

Exhibition Work.

The program in the evening was a splendid exhibition of the work in physical training which is being done under the direction of Physical Director Brewer. The parallel bar gymnastics by the leaders' corps was exceptionally good and received well earned applause. Prof. J. H. Rayhill was also loudly applauded for his splendid exhibition in fancy Indian club swinging. Other features were fancy marching and pyramid building by the older boys' class, high bar and buck work by the intermediate class and a calisthenic drill by the older boys. Fred Doht acted as accompanist for the gymnastics.

In the afternoon indoor baseball and basketball were played by the older boys. Two teams of business men met in an interesting game of volleyball. During the day, Mrs. Brewer served traps in the parlors of the association.

ISSUE PROCLAMATION.

El Paso, Texas, Jan. 1.—"We will respect all foreigners respecting us; none others." MORE ARE BELIEVED LOST IN ACCIDENT ON CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO RAILROAD

Weakened Bridge Under Repair Gives Away as Freight Train Nears Center of Structure Over Guyandotte River Near Guyandotte, West Virginia

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., JAN. 1.—Seven men were killed and the lives of several others are believed to have been lost today when a westbound Chesapeake & Ohio railroad freight train crashed through a weakened bridge across Guyandotte river, at Guyandotte, a suburb near this city. The known dead are:

F. E. Weber, engineer, Russel, Ky.
Henry White, bridge watchman, Huntington.
Charles Maddle, bridge worker, Talcott, W. Va.
James C. Crawford, bridge worker, St. Albans, W. Va.
Emmett Good, bridge worker, Talcott, W. Va.
Charles Coyner, bridge worker, Teays, W. Va.
L. S. Wheeler, Huntington, W. Va.
Upwards of a dozen men were injured.

A crew of thirty or more iron workers were employed installing a double track system across the bridge when the freight approached. A few left their posts, it is said, believing the bridge unsafe.

When near the center of the structure there was a crash and the bridge crumbled. The heavy train shot into the water and the bridge debris covered the train wreckage.

Members of the train crew and iron workers not caught beneath the wreckage struggled through the water to shore. Some of the injured were aided by others who escaped unhurt.

Efforts are being made to ascertain definitely the exact number of men who comprised the train and iron workers' crews.

No attempt had been made tonight to recover the bodies of the victims. The cause of the accident is believed to be a result of the water undermining the piling that had been put in at low water stage.

Sir Francis Bertie, the British ambassador, as dean of the diplomatic corps delivered a speech in which he congratulated M. Fallieres on behalf of his colleagues. He said that during M. Fallieres' tenure of office he had taken a preeminent part in the great work of civilization and largely had helped to maintain the good relations between nations.

President Fallieres thanked the ambassadors for the kind words of Sir Francis and said he would always treasure as one of the happiest memories of his years in office the excellent relations he had maintained with the diplomatic corps.

Night Jobs For the Jeweler.

"Jeweler's night bell." "Kindly ex-so insatiable that you have to get up at night to meet the demand?"

"It is not the prospect of making a night," said the jeweler, "but the misfortunes of my fellow man. About the only people who ring me up after working hours are those who have a

The First Fiction.
The "Tale of Two Brothers," written
3,200 years ago by the Theban scribe, Ennana, librarian of the palace to King Merneptah, the supposed Pharo-ah of the Exodus, is the oldest work of fiction extant. The tale was written apparently for the entertainment of the crown prince, who subsequently reigned as Seti II. His name appears in two places on the manuscript—probably the only surviving autograph signatures of an Egyptian king. This piece of antique fiction, written on unten sheets of papyrus in a bold hieratic hand, was purchased in Italy by M. d'Orbigny, who sold it in 1857 to the authorities of the British museum, where it is now known as the D'Orbigny papyrus.

WILL TRANSACT BUSINESS IN NEW AYERS BANK TODAY

Part of Working Force Will Still Continue at the Dunlap-Russell & Co. Establishment—Basement of New Building Open For Use of Public Business Sessions.

Today will witness the transaction of business for the first time in the New Ayers bank building. New Year's day a force of men were busy moving from the temporary quarters in the Gallaher block to the new building and while several things are yet to be installed for the use of the clerks and convenience of patrons, yet things are in such splendid shape that everything will move along without friction.

Headquarters for Committees.
The basement of the new bank building is a revelation to those who have seen it and resembles a hotel lobby. Here is a place where the business men of the city and community, not only patrons of the bank, but the public, can meet and transact business. All farmers, merchants, or any class of men or committees who have meetings to hold will be welcomed to its commodious quarters. In one of the apartments a long table is provided, with comfortable chairs. On this table are two telephones for public use and daily papers will also be found there.
Then there are smaller rooms where more private conversations may be held. Everything is so splendidly arranged for the public that the rooms are destined to be a meeting place for many gatherings.

Teller Window For Ladies.
The ladies' waiting room has also been equipped the past two days.
Here will be stationary and everything for their convenience. Ofttimes on busy days the ladies do not get their turn at the tellers' windows.
This has been overcome by having a special cage where the ladies may handle their banking business.

Old Bank Still Continues.
For the present the bank of Dunlap-Russell & Co. will be continued with the view of handling some special lines that can be more easily cared for than through a national bank. Customers wishing to change their account may have their books balanced and transfer made. Those desiring to remain may have the opportunity of a continuation of past relations which they have enjoyed.

Mr. Dunlap and a portion of the working force of the Dunlap-Russell & Co. bank will at once occupy desks at the Ayers National bank.
Mr. Russell will divide his time between the two institutions and competent assistants will be on hand at both places to promptly care for the needs of the customers.

ESKIMO THE TOPIC

Dr. Anderson of Stefansson Expedition Is in San Francisco.

Talks of Men in Arctic Who Hunt
With Crude Bow and Arrow, Fish
Through the Ice, Kindle Fire
In an Odd Way.

San Francisco, Cal.—Corroborating
in every detail the story of the discovery of the blond Eskimo tribes recently given the world of science by Vilhjalmr Stefansson, his partner in arctic explorations, Dr. Rudolph Martin Anderson of Forest City, Iowa, arrived here recently on the whaler Belvedere after four and a half years in the frozen north. He was accompanyed by Prof. E. Dekoven Leffingwell of Pasadena, Cal., who has passed three and a half years making observations in the vicinity of the Flax-man Islands and surveying and mapping about 150 miles of the coast line.

"It was over on the Cape Bexley territory, on the mainland and on Prince Albert sound, across and to the south of the Dolphin and Union straits, that Stefansson first got in touch with blond aborigines," said Dr.
Anderson. "In the spring of 1910 we lost most of our dogs while at Cape Barry, Langton bay and Franklin bay, where we had wintered. Stefansson and I parted company, he leaving with two Eskimos for the east, while I pushed on to the Mackenzie delta for supplies. We met again at Langton bay in the autumn of 1910 and he told me of the queer tribe he had discovered."

"In December we started out and were thirty-one days crossing 300 miles of the worst strip of land we ever encountered. We explored the little known Horton river and made records and compass calculations.
This is one of the largest rivers flowing into the Arctic. We were going through the barren grounds and putting in a supply of caribou for our dash for Coronation bay in the spring.

"From Dense river to Dismal lake and to the Copper Mine river and Coronation bay was our course, the last 75 miles over the ice before we found these strange people. First we came on a deserted snow village and finally an inhabited village with a population of forty. Many of the men had light mustaches. The people we discovered are extremely primitive, having no modern implements of any kind and no modern weapons. They hunt with a crude bow and arrow and spear fish through holes in the ice.
They cook their food. In kindling a fire they strike two crystallized stones together."

Dr. Anderson brings back hundreds of specimens of mammals, birds, fishes and minerals that will be divided between the dominion geological survey at Ottawa, Ont., and the American museum of Natural history in New York. He has thirty-five specimens of caribou.

DIAMOND AND DIAMONDS GO

So the Owner of the Latter Has the Former Arrested in New York for Theft.

New York.—Abraham Diamond, twenty-six years old, 657 Degraw street, Brooklyn, was charged with combining business and grand larceny by Mrs. Frances Moore of 330 West Eighty-seventh street, when he was arrested in the West side court.

Mrs. Moore wanted her vacuum cleaner repaired, and went to a department store to have a man sent up.
Later, Diamond, who is said to be a brother of the young woman in the store who took the order, turned up with a kit of tools. He cut his finger while fixing the cleaner and asked for a piece of lint. Mrs. Moore left the room to find a bandage. When she got back Diamond and her diamonds, including three rings, a bracelet and a brooch, all valued at $1,500, were gone.

Detectives waiting near the store arrested Diamond. He denied knowing what had happened to the jewelry.

GOVERNOR GETS 25 CENT TIP

Pennsylvania Executive Asked to Mail
Letter by Aged Man at Station—
He Does So.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Governor John K.
Tener got out of his private car at Coatesville to stretch his legs for a moment. As he was climbing aboard again an old man hurried up to him and said:

"Say, mister, would you mind mailing this letter for me when you get to Philadelphia?"

"Sure not," said the governor, and held out his hand for it.

"You'll not forget?" the old man called out as the train got under way.
"You bet I won't," was the reply, and then the governor discovered that the old man had given him something besides the letter.

It was a quarter dollar and the governor not only did not forget to mail the letter, but he sent it to the postoffice by messenger immediately after he arrived there.

Baby Hanged on a Churn.
Bloomsburg, Pa.—Returning to the kitchen after a few minutes' absence, Mrs. Ruben Hess of Cambria, Columbia county, found the body of her ten-months-old son hanging limply by the neck from the handle of a churn on which his bonnet strings had caught.
Strangulation caused the death of the baby.

MAINE REPUBLICAN AGAIN.

Atlanta, Me., Jan. 1.—After an interval of two years, during which time the entire affairs of the state have been in the hands of the Democrats, the Republican party resumed sway in Maine today with the inauguration of William T. Haines, Republican, as governor, and the assembling of a Republican legislature. The first work of the legislature will be to elect a successor to United States Senator Obadiah Gardner, a Democrat appointed by Gov. Plaisted to fill out the unexpired term of the late Senator Frye. The contest for the toga promises to be an interesting one. In the ordinary course of events the plum would go to ex-Congressman Edwin C. Burleigh, who was endorsed for the senatorship in the Republican primaries last June. But an element of doubt is added to the situation by the presence of a number of Progressives among the Republican members of the legislature. The senatorial primary was held before the organization of a third party and now the Progressives claim that they are in no way bound to respect the results of the Republican primary. Senator Gardner entertains a hope that he may be re-elected through a combination of the Democrats and Progressives. Mr. Burleigh, on the other hand, is confident there are enough Republican votes on joint ballot to bring about his own election.

BIG PENSION PLAN IN EFFECT.

New York, Jan. 1.—By far the most far-reaching plan yet adopted by any American industrial corporation for the pensioning of its employees is that put into effect today by the Bell telephone system and affiliated interests. A fund of $10,000,000 for pensions, sick benefits and life insurance has been made available for the employees of the several companies, and their families and dependents, amounting altogether to more than a quarter of a million people. The fund is to be provided by annual appropriations by the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the Western Union Telegraph company and the Western Electric company.

THE TEMPERATURES.

The temperatures for Wednesday, according to G. H. Hall, weather observer at Alexander, were: maximum 51, minimum 23.

We Announce For This Week A Splendid Sale of

FURS

Furs are something we positively will not carry over from one season to another. As yet the mercury has not dropped low enough to make a very great demand for furs--so we have decided to drop the prices on our furs down past the zero mark and see if we cannot create a demand. We will not quote prices here. They would be meaningless when apart from the furs. But come to the store--make your choice and we will name you the lowest price you were ever made on a high quality fur.

THE BOHEMIAN GIRL.

When a present day opera or musical comedy has a run in New York or Chicago of twenty or thirty weeks, a great hullabaloo is made. It then has a road career of one or perhaps two seasons and then is heard of no more. Contrast this with the record of Balfe's ballad opera, "The Bohemian Girl," with its almost seventy years of continuous popularity and not alone in the United States but also in various European countries. This most popular of all standard operas will be presented at the Grand on Wednesday night, Jan. 8, by the Aborn Opera company. The version now being presented admits the introduction of a troupe of whirlwind acrobats, geese, horses, monkeys, chickens, etc., all of which are said to be employed with telling effect. A special orchestra is an important addition to this season's company.

PARCELS POST BEGINS.

Not more than two dozen packages were left at the Jacksonville post office Wednesday to be sent by parcels post, which went into effect yesterday. Some of those are still in the office as they were improperly labeled or stamped. The rules of the parcels post system must be strictly adhered to insure delivery of the parcels.

Our Query and Reply Department

What is Yankee Doodle?—It is the name of an air, adopted as a national tune to the United States. The words are mere doggerel. Yankee Doodle was composed by Dr. Shackburg, a physician in the British army in America, about 1755, and palmed off by him as a celebrated air on a body of American militia.

Distinguish between Brass and Bronze?—Brass is a composition of copper and zinc. Bronze is a composition of copper and tin.

What is the Harvest Moon and the Hunters' Moon?—The harvest moon is the full moon in September that falls nearest to the autumnal equinox. The hunters' moon is the first full moon in October after the autumnal equinox.

What is meant by "Clinical" as applied to Surgery and Medicine?—"Clinical" is from a Greek word signifying a bed, and is applied to those branches of the medical art in which instruction is given to students at the bedside of patients. Hospitals and infirmaries are the great schools of clinical medicine and surgery.

What is the Year of Jubilee?—Among the Jews the jubilee came every fiftieth year, which was the year after one week of weeks of years had passed, or seven times seven. All slaves who were of Hebrew blood were freed, all debts were cancelled, and all hands were returned to original owners during the jubilee. In the Roman Catholic church the jubilee is observed every twenty-fifth year.

Who was the Wizard of Kinderhook?—Martin Van Buren, who was born at Kinderhook, N. Y., was so called because of his astuteness.

Who was Gebr?—He was an Arabian alchemist, who lived in the eighth century, and wrote the first book on chemistry.

What is the Origin of the Word "Pecuniary"?—It is from the Latin pecunia, money; the root of the word pecunia was pecus, "cattle"—cattle having constituted the wealth of the early Roman people.

SAMUEL JUMPER CELEBRATES EIGHTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Friends Join in Making the Event
One Long to Be Remembered—
Personal Mention of Sinclair Residents.

The 85th birthday anniversary of Samuel Jumper of Sinclair was duly celebrated as had been announced previously in these columns and the event was one to be long remembered by all who were present. The rooms were fittingly decorated in colors suitable to the glad Christmas times with green vines, bells of various colors and sizes. The first thing on the evening program was the distribution of the presents. These had been arranged in a tasteful manner, each having a label bearing the name of the person for whom the gift was intended. One of the gifts for Mr. Jumper was a large package of post cards and letters of greetings from friends from near and far. The cards numbered 89, five of them from his comrades in the civil war. One was from the president of the Phi Nu society of the Illinois Woman's college in the names of the forty members of the society, who sent kind greetings in remembrance of Mrs. Jumper, who was the founder of the society. It was an evening of unalloyed pleasure and will not soon be forgotten.

Mr. Jumper was the recipient of quite a number of fitting presents. His mail included letters from a niece in Lyons, Kan., and one from his former neighbor, P. G. Cavanaugh. During the day among the callers were Hassel Hopper, J. E. Brown and Henry Olroyd from nearby and J. C. Hamilton from Loami. Miss Marie Jumper, a granddaughter had as a present a kodak and she put it to good use by taking a picture of those present, which was greatly appreciated by all. Mr. Hamilton is 84 years old and he and Mr. Jumper are all that are left of six mesmates who went through the war together.

RECOLLECTION OF AN OLD TIME PHYSICIAN

Early Residents Will Remember the Eccentricities of Dr. McDowell.

Elderly physicians will remember the famous Dr. McDowell of St. Louis, a man who attained great celebrity before the war in his profession. He was extremely rough in his talk and frightfully profane swearing with almost every other word yet he had a good many kindly ways about him and showed many favors to poor people. He was a member of the faculty of a medical college in St. Louis in his later years though the writer thinks he allied himself with the southern confederacy at the beginning of the war.

At one time a gentleman took with him to the doctor for treatment a blacksmith who had a polypus in his nose and was suffering much inconvenience from it. The gentleman was well acquainted with the grim old physician and talked a few minutes before introducing the patient and the latter bearing the profanity of the medical man and seeing his rough ways was prepared for almost anything. At last he timidly said to the old fellow:

"Doctor, I have come to consult you about that thing in my nose."

"Get down here," said the grim desciple of Aesculapius, and the gentleman getting the man down he took his head between his knees, made a hasty examination and soon discovered the trouble. His side remarks will not bear repetition, but he soon had the offending substance out and gave the man something to stop the flow of blood.

As soon as the poor fellow could get his breath he trembling asked the amount of his bill.

Turning to the gentleman who had brought him there the doctor asked regarding the circumstances of the patient. The gentleman said the man was a blacksmith, an industrious, hard working man and not blessed with a great deal of money though not at all a beggar.

"Get out and begone with you," shouted the old doctor and the poor fellow left not knowing whether he would be arrested for stealing or whether the doctor had meant to do him a kindly act which was the real case.

After he returned to the city from active practice a young physician took the place and was sent for to see a child who was sick. He told the parents the little one wasn't very bad and only needed careful dieting and attention for a few days and he would be all right.

At once the parents decided the young upstart didn't know what was the matter and going to the city begged the old doctor to come out and save the child's life. They told him what the young doctor had said and added their opinion of his ability. Arriving at the house the old doctor looked very grave, solemnly prepared pills and drops which were to be given with great care and regularity and accompanied by careful diet and other measures.

In due time the child recovered and the parents congratulated themselves that they had acted so wisely and asked the old man for his bill which was a good, stiff one. After he had pocketed the cash he told them not to be so wise next time. The young doctor was wobbling right and all the child had taken was bread pills and rainwater drops.

One cold winter night his early practice house was called in the middle of the night to see a child ten miles in the country. They begged him to hurry as the little one was dying. He did so and arriving at the house found no one stirring. Rapping loudly at the door he at last aroused some one who was sticking a head out of a window asked who was there and being told replied:

"Oh yes, we did send for you, John, took some laudanum for paregoric but he's all right now. You needn't mind coming in."

With feelings and language not wholly biblical he turned away when the voice called out:

"I say doctor, you don't charge nothing for this, do you?"

He used to tell with gusto how he was taken in once by a patient who sent for him to cure the ague. The man had a large farm and was extremely anxious to get to work and offered a large sum for speedy cure. Quinine was just coming to the front and expatiating much on its virtues, he left liberal doses of it and went away. He returned a few days later and found his patient all right and was counting on the big fee he would have. He said something more about the value of quinine and its great properties. The man said that might be all right but the medicine was all on the shelf and all he had taken was several doses of coal oil.

When he was quite young he had a woman patient who was in the last stages of consumption and he felt he wanted counsel as she seemed sure to die and to his great relief the father suggested calling an older doctor which was done. The young man said the sweat poured down his back as the older physician entered the house but he had said nothing. The new doctor carefully wiped his glasses and examined the patient with great deliberation and then called the young practitioner aside and asked him what he had done and being told the treatment was alright but they must resort to expedient though he failed to explain himself. Returning to the room he called the father aside and told him to get a cat perfectly black, cut off the end of its tail, catch the blood, place it in a tumbler of water and give a teaspoonful every two hours, then remove the hide and put the carcass on the breast of the patient.

Next day the old doctor met the young man and asked him if the directions had been followed and also asked him if the woman had died and being told she had he went to the house and calling the father said the remedy suggested was a German prescription never known to fail and the death was a mystery. He called for the hide of the cat and carefully examining it found a few white hairs and throwing up his hands declared that was the seat of the trouble.

This story is vouched for by credible witnesses and it must be remembered that the incident took place many years before the war in a new part of the country. It was a clever device to protect the young doctor who had done all than anyone could do under the circumstances.

"EVERY LITTLE OLIVE TABLET HAS A MOVEMENT ALL ITS OWN"

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver. Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years. Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

WHEN WAS IT BUILT?

Quite a discussion has arisen regarding the year during which the large building occupied by the extensive store of Phelps & Osborne was erected. Some elderly settlers are quite certain that it was built about 1869 while J. T. Osborne says he is absolutely certain he was discharged from the army in September, 1864 and came home and remained on the farm that winter. Next spring he went with Mr. Alexander across the river for a lot of cattle and then came back and began clerking for "Doc" Flitch who had a dry-goods store there at that time.

It goes to show how the best of people may be mistaken. Jack says loar & Bruce put up the building and the writer endeavored to speak with Mr. Loar regarding the matter but could get no reply over the 'phone and presumes the family are enjoying a holiday visit somewhere from home.

RECEIVES PAINFUL INJURY.

Little Daughter of Mrs. Mabel Donovan Receives Kick in Mouth By Horse.

About noon Wednesday, Dorothy, the little daughter of Mrs. Mabel Donovan of 952 Hardin avenue, received a very painful kick in the mouth by a horse. Mrs. Donovan had taken the horse out of the barn to water it and when she went to put the animal in the lot, it jumped and kicked, one of its feet striking the little girl, who was standing near. She was unconscious for a time and was taken to the office of a surgeon where her injuries received proper attention. Although the injury is quite painful nothing serious is expected to result.

MEETINGS AT NORTHMINSTER CHURCH.

The meetings to be begun Sunday at Northminster church are anticipated by the worthy pastor, Rev. W. L. Spoons, and the people with much interest. Rev. W. A. Bodell is a man of great power and earnestness and accomplishes much good wherever he goes. He is without sensation, is earnest and faithful to his mission and tries to save souls. The singing will be a leading feature of the meetings as Northminster congregations have in them many excellent voices and it is expected that a good leader will be secured who will make the music something which all will enjoy hearing.

Of Mr. Bodell, Rev. J. W. Hawk, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Bluffton, Ind., says:

"During the past two weeks a series of meetings has been held in the Presbyterian church of Bluffton, Ind. The pastor, Rev. James H. Hawk, has been assisted during these meetings by Rev. W. A. Bodell, whose work has been beyond criticism. As a preacher of the word he has mighty power—is full of the spirit and deeply in earnest; as an organizer he must have few superiors. During the meetings there were sixty-one additions to the church, and these are most hopeful. Many more, we are sure, will yet unite with the church as a result of these meetings. The membership of the church has been greatly revived and much good has been accomplished."

CLASS HOLDS MEETING.

Among those present were: Alma Armstrong, Elizabeth Leggett, Margaret McGinnis, Fern McLaughlin, Opal Marshall, Ruby Molohon, Stella Gruber, Ethel Hartle, Frances Hayes, Nettie Tendick, Marge Johnson, Mabel Wyatt, Hilda Franz, Rosan Shepherd and Leora Johnston.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Vuna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up outcrop of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newell's Hericide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Hericide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Guide Book Contains Many Instructions and Names of Various Post Offices—Distinctive Stamps Must Be Affixed to All Mailing Parcels—Other Information.

The Journal has received a copy of the official guide book of regulations, and map for use in connection with determining the rate of postage to be charged under the zone system prescribed in the act of August 24, 1912 in using the parcel post system which is effective from and after the beginning of the present year 1913. The guide book contains the names of the various post offices has 395 pages with four columns to the page and an average of forty-two offices to a column.

The guide is at the inspection of those wishing to ascertain the rates, and to familiarize themselves in regard to the new system and its workings. To ascertain the rate of postage, first find the number of the unit in which the office of address is located as shown by the guide. Then find the unit on the map. The circular red lines on the map mark the boundaries of the eight zones of distance on which the postal rates are based. The rate of postage by zone for each weight is printed in the lower left-hand corner of the map.

Section one of the parcel post regulations provides that hereafter fourth class matter shall embrace all other matter, including farm and factory products, not now embraced by law in either the first, second, or third class, not exceeding eleven pounds in weight, nor greater in size than seventy-two inches in length and girth combined, nor in form or kind likely to injure the person of any postal employee or damage the mail equipment or other mail matter and not of a character perishable within a period reasonably required for transportation and delivery.

Section two states that for the purposes of this section the United States and its several territories and possessions, excepting the Philippine Islands, shall be divided into units of area thirty minutes square, identical with a quarter of the area formed by the intersecting parallels of latitude and meridians of longitude, represented on appropriate postal maps or plans, and such units of area shall be the basis of eight postal zones. Then follows at length the description of the area of the various zones.

Section three sets forth the rate of postage to be charged for the transportation of packages according to weight in the various zones.

Section four states that the postmaster general shall provide such special equipment, maps, stamps, directions and printed instructions as may be necessary for the administration of this section, etc.

Section five provides that the postmaster general shall make provisions by regulation for the indemnification of shippers, for shipment injured or lost, by insurance or otherwise, and when desired, for the collection or delivery of the postage and price of the article shipped, fixing such charges as may be necessary to pay the cost of such additional services.

Section seven gives the rates of postage, and contains a table showing the rates changeable in the various zones and the weights that may be mailed at the given rates.

Section eight provides that distinctive parcel post stamp shall be affixed and that postmasters cannot receive for mailing parcels that do not bear such stamps. Parcel post stamps are not valid for the payment of postage on matter of the first, second and third classes, and when so used the matter to which they are affixed shall be treated as "held for postage."

Other sections are devoted to insufficiently prepaid matter, where parcels are mailable, preparation for mailing, examination of parcels, limit of weight and size, unmailable matter, packing of parcels, parcels improperly packed, misdirected matter, forwarding of parcels, undeliverable parcels, changes of address, return to division of dead letters, found loose in the mails, insurance on parcels, registration, complaints of loss, delay, etc.

DEMOCRATS CAUCUS.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 1.—Anti-Lorimer Democratic members of the lower house of the Forty-eighth General Assembly will hold a caucus in this city next Monday afternoon for the purpose of outlining a program for the session.

The call for the caucus was sent out today by Dr. J. M. Bell of Rochester, member of the house from this district. During the day Dr. Bell, William A. Hubbard of Carrollton and John C. Richardson, of Christian county, all classified as "anti-Lorimer" Democrats held a conference at the St. Nicholas hotel following which the call for the meeting next Monday was issued.

TRI-STATE MEET.

On May 10 Keokuk will hold their annual tri-state track and field meet. It is expected that about 150 schools will attend the contest, including several from St. Louis and Chicago.

The Jacksonville High school has received an invitation to enter her athletes as in former years.

ORGANIZED TRAINING CLASS.
Regular prayer meeting services were held at the Grace M. E. church Wednesday night. After a meeting a teachers' training class was organized. The purpose of this class is for the training of the teachers of the older classes.

New Clover hay, Brook Mill.

Piers and Beers.

The Percy family of England—the family of the dukes of Northumberland—preserves in its archives the Northumberland household book, a kind of steward's journal that is chiefly remarkable for its account of the incredible quantity of liquor our ancestors consumed.

Back in the middle ages, before the prohibition movement began, the Earl and Countess of Percy, the Northumberland household book states, drank with their 7 o'clock breakfast a quart of beer and a quart of wine. For dinner, at 10 o'clock, they drank a gallon of beer and two quarts of wine. At supper they drank two quarts of beer and two quarts of wine, and at "dinner," a meal which was served in the bedroom at 9 o'clock in the evening, they drank a gallon of beer and a quart of wine. That is to say, provided that the Earl and Countess of Percy drank fair, each consumed daily five quarts and a pint of beer—say, twenty-two glasses apiece—and six quarts of wine—say thirty glasses apiece, claret size.

When It Rained Stones Eleven Days.

There are hundreds of well authenticated accounts of stones falling from the skies, from the mysterious regions of the great sea of space, but such "falls" have usually been singly or, at the most, in small showers. According to a legend told by the Arabs of the Sahara, there was a time in that portion of the dark continent when pebbles and fine sand literally rained from above for several days, covering the earth to a depth of many feet. In fact, they claim that the great desert did not exist prior to the time when this great shower of aerolites came. In Jenekyu's "Trip to Ye Burning Sandes of Africa" the following is told under the head "Another of God's Wonders": "Moreover, the natives of these parts say that it once rained small stones and sandes for a period of eleven days and nights. Much fertile land and many towns and thousands of animals and human beings were thus buried up."

A Garrick Trick.

One of the best of the stories that have been preserved relating to David Garrick's remarkable faculty for impersonation is that one about a holiday that he and the French comedian Preville had when the English Roscius was visiting in Paris.

One morning Garrick and his French colleague were waiting in a diligence to start for Versailles. The driver refused to budge until at least four passengers would undertake the trip. Garrick jumped out and, changing his gait and voice, hailed the coachman on the box and got in again. He repeated the trick three times, each time with a different voice and appearance. The driver, thinking he was now "full inside," joyfully cracked his whip and galloped away with the two actors for his only passengers.

Deceptive.

A lanky country youth entered the crossroads general store to order some groceries. He was seventeen years old and was passing through that stage of adolescence during which a boy seems all hands and feet and his vocal organs, rapidly developing, are wont to cause his voice to undergo sudden and involuntary changes from high treble to low bass.

In an authoritative rumbling bass voice he demanded of the busy clerk: "Give me a can of corn" (then, his voice suddenly changing to a shrill falsetto, he continued: "and a sack of flour.")

"Well, don't be in a hurry. I can't wait on both of you at once," snapped the clerk.—Everybody's.

Quite Appropriate.

The bachelor community of a certain suburb were greatly scared by the advent among them of a fearsome type of the desperate, husband hunting spinster. After throwing each of the local bachelors into spasms of terror lest he should be the recipient of her attentions the lady finally managed to captivate the curate. Local bachelordom was so intensely relieved at its escape that it united in presenting the curate with a splendid wedding present in the shape of a costly table service.

The curate was overwhelmed. "Such a magnificent service!" he gasped.

"Well, you see, my boy," explained the chief of the local bachelors, "it is really a thanksgiving service."—London Answers.

Wanted All That Was In It.

Father exhorted wife has presented him with twins—Tommy, you may stay home from school today and tomorrow tell the teacher you have two new brothers. Tommy—Wouldn't it be better to say that I have only one new brother? Then I can stay home a day next week for the other one.—Fleegende Blatter.

The Last Word.

"How did you come to bid so extravagantly on so poor a hand?" asked the patient partner.

"Humph!" returned Mrs. Flungit. "You didn't suppose I was going to let that woman on my right have the last word, did you?"—Washington Star.

So Did He.

"Do you know," said the successful merchant pompously, "that I began life as a barefoot boy?"

"Well," said his clerk, "I wasn't born with shoes on either."

Catching Her.

She pouting—Before we were married you often used to catch me to your arms.

He—Yes, and now I catch you in my pockets.

"I WONDER NOW," A New Year Reverie.

(S. H. McCausland).

Before me is a picture of A. D. 1912. Wreathed in a robe of white, his hour-glass strapped about his waist, one hand resting upon his inverted scythe, the other supporting his aged head. His face wrinkled, his gums toothless, his long, flowery beard and sparse locks waving in the winter's blast. Seated upon a fallen tree, his dim eyes survey inquiringly and plaintively, a cherub, destitute of apparel, save an ordinary breech clout and a pair of wings, glued to his back, and an idiotic grin upon his silly-looking countenance, labeled 1913. Above the head of the patriarch is inscribed the text of this article, "I Wonder Now."

My first wonder is how much greater the cares, the sorrows and the disappointments of life must be than its accomplishments and pleasures; how steadfast have been enemies and how unfaithful friends; how fickle has been fortune, how unrelenting and implacable has been fate, that one short twelve-months could turn a laughing, happy-go-lucky spirit into a grim, decrepit imbecile 1912. How many births has he witnessed, how many graves seen filled, how many bitter, bitter disappointments, how many happy marriages and unhappy divorces, how many prison doors have opened to liberty and freedom, how many others have shut out every hope for which life was intended. The smiles and laughter, the sighs and tears, do they counterbalance? How many expectations have failed us, how many million of prayers unanswered. Have we this year, faced and fought the battles of life strongly? Have we defended that which we believed to be right and used our might to overthrow the wrong? Do we, I wonder, go out of the old year into the new better qualified to meet the coming events?

Have we made every reasonable effort to undo the wrongs done by us, or to us? In our hearts does there linger that bitterness toward another of our fellow beings? Have we visited the "widow and the fatherless in their affliction"? Have we extended to suffering humanity our sympathy and aid? Have we sown deeds of love and kindness along life's pathway or have we scattered the thorns and thistles of discontent. Do we bring new friends into the new year? Have we become reconciled to our enemies of the old year. If we have made a new friend, if we have regained the confidence and good will of an estranged friend, if we have, by word or deed, thrown sunshine upon the gloomy path of some wanderer, if we have brought a ray of gladness to but one heart, if we have overcome a single fault in ourselves we have not lived the old year in vain.

But what, I wonder, of the new year. Will it bring success or defeat. Will our resolutions be kept? Will our vows be unbroken? Will we, at its close, be among the living, or will we have passed to nothingness? Will we have advanced in mental and moral growth? Will we have learned that every man is a brother to every other man? Will we learn to war against nation no more? Will we serve God with our lips and curse man in our hearts? Will we use the church as a cloak behind which to hide hatred, enmity and deceit? I wonder, will the great leaders of thought "lead." What progress will be made in art, science, literature, invention, etc.? Will nations be brought into closer and more harmonious relation, or will there be "wars and rumors of wars"? Will man still be taught that in war, to take the life of his fellowman is no crime? Will he be taught that he may, through the entire period of his life, not only once but a million times, commit every sin in the catalogue of sins and yet by a process so simple that a child may apply it, have his deeds atoned for. I am neither denying nor criticizing this teaching—only "wondering" to what extent this assurance is responsible for crime.

Again, I wonder, will "1913" see the wrongs of the oppressed righted? Will it bring a proper distribution of property among all classes? Will the "horny handed son of toil" be the equal of him who toils not? Will the fortunate man be more generous with his less fortunate neighbor? Will the physical and mental ailments of mankind through scientific methods decrease? Will honor and honesty dwell in high places? Will the lawless, the outcast, the coward, the despondent and those who are "pulling hard against the streams," be lifted by the tie of universal brotherhood, nearer to the great pulsating heart of sympathetic humanity, or will they be left to sink or struggle alone? Who can say? A benevolent Providence, who watches over the destinies of nations and of men, wisely draws an inscrutable veil over the vision of man, requiring him to meet only such exigencies as arise daily before him. Trusting the guidance of Him who sees the end from the beginning, hoping always for the best, yet preparing for the worst, let us do our duty with diligence, without fear, from a love of right, and in the hope of a reward hereafter.

ANNUAL VISITORS' DAY.

Wednesday, Jan. 1, being the annual visitors' day at the Young Men's Christian association building, many of the young men and their friends gathered and enjoyed the afternoon and evening. At 2:30 an indoor basketball game was arranged. At 4:15 a basketball game was played by the older boys' classes. At 4:15 two teams of business men met in an interesting game of volley ball.

The J. R. Penrose Farm

$225.00 Per Acre. No Trades.

One of the very best and most productive farms in Henry county (which is saying a good deal, for Henry County can't be beat either in Iowa or Illinois) containing One Hundred and Sixty-five (165) acres, located in Scott township, three and one-half miles from WINFIELD, which is one of the brightest, best, little towns in Iowa. Winfield is on C. B. & Q., and Iowa Central Railroads, has a population of 1,000; two banks, two lumber yards; a planing mill; two grain elevators; three churches—Presbyterian, Methodist and United Presbyterian—all fine edifices. Excellent High School—graduates can enter State University without examination.

IMPROVEMENTS—Well-built, substantial two-story house, with furnace, cement cellar under entire house (two divisions) cistern and good well, fine drinking water, gasoline engine pump, a second one and one-half story house, used for wash house, storage, etc.; good large barn, crib and granaries with capacity for storing 7,500 bushels of grain; five ton "Howe" scales; buggy house; machinery shed; chicken house; fine hog house, etc.; orchard and grove.

FENCING—Hog-tight boundary fences, over one-half built new in 1910; good cross fences, part of them hog-tight; ornamental wood picket lawn fence and very best woven wire fencing dividing lots, all new, built 1910.

THE SOIL—Land is smooth, no waste. The soil is Iowa's famous black loam, with clay sub-soil, well tiled, over 40,000 of four and six inch tile on the place, with first-class outlet, one tile watering place, fed also by spring never known to go dry.

CROPS—Have been in rotation from corn to small grain and clover, generally one-half of the acreage in corn, the yield of which has averaged from sixty to eighty bushels per acre. In 1910 ninety acres averaged sixty-four bushels to the acre, seventeen acres of second year sod producing eighty-five bushels to the acre of good sound corn weighed in at 75 lbs. to the bushel. Good yields of oats and clover hay. Between four and five thousand dollars has been expended on this farm by its present owner in the past three years, tiling it out and in fencing, cribs, scales, painting, shingling, etc., etc., bringing the farm up in first class shape, the principal expenditure being for drainage, over seven (7) miles of ditching 2 1/2 to 3 feet deep being required for the tile which has been put in, all of it four and six inch and the outlets are exceptionally good. I take pride in presenting this fine farm on my list, its owner, Mr. J. R. Penrose of Burlington, Iowa, having placed it with me for sale at $225 per acre, and it is worth the money. Mr. Penrose names liberal terms. Part of the purchase price can remain on the farm for five years at 5 per cent interest.

EIGHTY-ONE ACRES OF THIS FARM NOW SET TO CLOVER. AN EXCELLENT STAND.

SOME COMMENTS

From Hon. William D. Dodds, Danville, Iowa.

J. R. Penrose, Burlington, Iowa.

Dear Sir: In December, 1910, I spent some time in viewing your farm at Winfield, Iowa. I was greatly pleased with the improvements, the lay of the land, the way you are managing the farm in order to keep up the fertility of the soil. The corn harvested on this farm is the best I have seen anywhere. I consider it one of Iowa's choice farms, well worth any man's time to look at.

Danville, Iowa, February 2, 1911.

Yours Respectfully,
W. D. DODDS.

From a Former Owner.

J. R. Penrose, Burlington, Iowa.

I bought the north eighty of your farm in 1876, the south eighty about ten years afterward. I sold the whole farm in 1900, thus having lived there and farmed for near twenty-five years—raised our family there. I consider that you have a good farm, and every foot of it can be farmed. There is no waste land on the entire quarter section. At the time I built the house I took great pride and put up one of the most substantial homes in the country, and I am considered a mechanic myself. You are to be congratulated on owning this farm and for the improvements you have added to it the last two years, and whoever buys it will have a productive piece of land and a very comfortable home, in as good a community as there is anywhere. I now own 80 acres 1 1/4 miles south of you, for which I received a bonafide offer last spring of $225 per acre—(it was in February, 1910). I own 105 acres just east of Winfield. I live in town and rent the farm. Winfield is a good town, with a good set of sterling citizens—splendid high school and three fine churches. With best wishes, Most truly yours,

Winfield, Iowa, January 12, 1912.

CASPER SCHENK.

From a Former Owner.

Mr. J. R. Penrose.

Dear Sir: In regard to the information you asked concerning your Winfield farm, will state that I owned and operated it for a number of years; that in my opinion it is one of the most productive and fertile farms in Henry county, absolutely free from all obnoxious weeds and vines, and that I made the mistake of my lifetime when I disposed of it. Respectfully yours, Medapolis, Iowa, August 1, 1911.

S. C. DODDS.

W. V. Lloyd, President.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I have made a personal inspection of the J. R. Penrose farm, situated near Winfield, Iowa, and consider it one of the good corn farms of southeastern Iowa. It would make an ideal home, being located in a good community and very finely improved. Any statement Mr. Penrose will make in regard to crop yield can be relied upon. Yours truly, Medapolis, Iowa, June 14, 1911.

W. V. Lloyd.

From Business Men and Farmers of Winfield and Vicinity.

To Whom It May Concern:

We, the undersigned, know the J. R. Penrose farm described above and consider it to be one of the best and most productive farms in the vicinity of Winfield. The location is excellent, the improvements are exceptionally good. The statements of the owner, Mr. J. R. Penrose, as to yield, etc., may be thoroughly relied upon.

CASPER SCHENK, Retired Farmer.

A. E. ROSS, farm adjoining.

Some Comparative Values

Casper Schenk refused a bonafide offer of $225 per acre for his farm, 1 1/4 miles south of the "Penrose Farm." Mr. Henry Moody owns the farm adjoining on the north. He refused to price his farm. I do not believe that $250 per acre would be any temptation to Mr. Moody to sell. Mr. Martin contracted the sale of his 140 acre farm, situated 1 1/2 miles northeast of the "Penrose Farm," at $225 per acre, but, changing his mind, refused to deliver the deed, making an honorable settlement to be released from delivery. Many other instances of bonafide offers and sales at prices ranging up to $250 per acre could be cited. The refusals, the offers submitted and prices obtained for farms in the neighborhood of the "Penrose Farm" are conclusive proofs that the price at which Mr. Penrose has authorized me to sell his farm is entirely reasonable and conservative. I repeat, that this farm is worth the money asked.

SOME REFLECTIONS

DO YOU KNOW that there are only five corn producing states in the Union, the rest being consumers? That all the corn land of the great West has been developed? That there is no more cheap, undeveloped corn land to excite the people and therefore hold down the price of unimproved land? That within another ten years the United States will hardly produce enough corn for home consumption, and that the lowest price of corn will be upwards of 60 cents per bushel, and our best farms in the corn belt will be intensely farmed and easily bring $250 to $300 and more per acre? That no man can make a mistake or pay too much for a well located "No. 1" farm in the corn belt? If you are well posted the facts stated above are self evident truths.

THEN WHY DELAY the purchase of such a well improved, highly developed farm, so advantageously located? Remember, a piece of well located and productive land cannot run away, be stolen, burned up nor depreciate in value.

If you want an "IDEAL HOME FARM" in this part of Iowa, come and let me show you this one. Write to me and I will send you a descriptive and illustrated circular, showing residence, barn, cribs, etc.

More Bovine Than Prodigal.
Corporal Nugent had returned to Kansas City, Kan., after a long absence, and the farmer who delivers eggs twice a week at the Nugent home recognized in the corporal a strange individual, but an undoubted member of the family, judging from facial appearance. It happened a few days ago that the corporal was alone in the house when the farmer delivered the eggs. The farmer was desirous of saying something pleasant of course.
"I suppose," he said, "that you are the prodigal son?"
"No," said the corporal gravely. "I am the fatted calf."—Kansas City Star.

Japanese Royal Composers.
The imperial family of Japan, like the Hohenzollerns, has produced some musical composers. At the reception given by the milk in 1894 to celebrate his silver wedding a dance was played which, according to the regram, was "composed 1,500 years ago by the Emperor Yomer. It represents the joyous flight of a bird of paradise in the golden age." Another dance was "composed 987 years ago by Prince Atsumi."

Much Better.
Small Edgar while out walking with "Well, why don't you go ahead?" she asked.

"I was just thinking," replied Edgar.
"that it would be better to go afoot."

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 1.—Clarice "Wildcat" Ferns, of Kansas City, claimant of the welter-weight championship of the world was awarded the decision over Harry Brewer, of Kansas City after ten rounds of ferocious fighting here this afternoon.

Ferns was the aggressor throughout the fight and he had the advantage in every round except the first when honors were even. Brewer was in trouble in the second round and in the last two rounds he was in evident distress. Ferns fought in the last round while Brewer made a desperate effort to save himself from punishment.

Neither man was knocked down during the contest.

CALIFORNIA WOMAN SERIOUSLY ALARMED

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sausalito, Calif. For sale by all dealers.

M'CARTY DEFEATS PALZER AT VERNON

REFEREE EYTON AWARDS DECISION IN EIGHTEENTH.

Palzer's Condition Renders Him Unable to Continue Fighting and Eyton Stops the Contest—Palzer Outweighed McCarty 22 Pounds.

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—Luther McCarty who conquered Jim Fynn, three weeks ago to day, defeated Al Palzer at Vernon arena in the 18th round. Referee Eyton stopped the fight at this stage, Palzer's condition rendering him unable to go on. McCarty entered the ring at 2:54 after watching the last preliminary from a ringside seat. He was followed by Palzer within a few moments.

Ringside betting appeared to favor McCarty, although odds of 10 to 8 were greedily accepted by Palzer's backers. Most of the heavy betting was at even money.

Palzer's weight was announced at 227, and McCarty's 205.

The fight started at 3:18.

ROUND 2. McCarty landed hard right to Palzer's jaw and forced Palzer to make several vicious swings, and then drove a terrific left to Palzer's left eye. Palzer reached McCarty's face with two straight lefts and McCarty sent Palzer's head back with a left to the face and until the end of the round landed at will on Palzer.

ROUND 3. Palzer sent right to the body and put two hard rights to the stomach. Both missed and they went into a clinch. McCarty rammed straight left into Palzer's face and landed frequently, ramming Palzer's jaw with right and left with terrific speed at the close of the round.

ROUND 4. Palzer did some fair work in this round, but McCarty hit hard and effectively. The round was even.

ROUND 5. Both of Palzer's eyes were swollen when he came up in the fifth. McCarty began hammering at the start and several times rocked Palzer's head with well timed swings and brought blood from his nose and mouth. As the round was closing, Palzer drove a hard left to McCarty's chin, but the cowboy merely grinned.

ROUND 6. Palzer put two straight lefts to McCarty's face. McCarty swung his right to jaw, causing another flow of blood from Palzer's mouth. Once Palzer sent McCarty to the ropes, but McCarty came back so effectively that Palzer went to his corner looking groggy.

ROUND 7. Palzer sent three lefts to the face and McCarty retaliated with a hard right to the stomach in the clinch that followed. McCarty drove a terrific right to Palzer's jaw, nearly throwing him off his feet. They exchanged viciously, but the round ended in McCarty's favor.

ROUND 8. McCarty flailed Palzer's head rocked McCarty's head but Palzer rocked McCarty's head with two straight lefts, once during the round.

ROUND 9. Palzer rushed into a clinch and McCarty sent right to the body and left to the jaw. McCarty again reached Palzer's jaw and stomach with right and lefts. Palzer staggered McCarty with left to face and they clinched. As the round was closing Palzer drove a terrific blow to the wind and McCarty retaliated with a terrific right swing that sent Palzer's head back.

ROUND 10. Palzer came up aggressively and put three lefts to McCarty's jaw. Both appeared to be slowing up. A straight left opened a slight cut under McCarty's right eye.

ROUND 11. McCarty opened with a hard right to the head and put a left to the jaw and continued punishing his adversary to the end. Palzer was dazed as the gong rang.

ROUND 12. McCarty staggered Palzer with a volley of rights and lefts to the jaw, followed by a hard right to the stomach, and worked so effectively that Palzer did not land a blow during the round.

ROUND 13. This round was a repetition of the punishment showered upon Palzer by McCarty in the two preceding rounds. As the bell rang McCarty smothered Palzer with a fusillade of hard swings to the head and body, and Palzer staggered to his corner.

ROUND 14. Palzer came up viciously and after reaching McCarty with right straight arm blows, McCarty again staggered him with a series of straight lefts to the face and stomach. Palzer was standing up under terrific punishment and appeared at this stage that only the landing of a chance knockout would save him. A crushing right to Palzer's stomach caused Palzer to stagger.

ROUND 15. Palzer rushed at McCarty, but all his efforts to reach him failed and he was soon staggering about the ring. He was all out as the round ended.

ROUND 17. Palzer was groggy, but courageous as he came up, but desperately as he tried the best he could do was to hit McCarty low which brought a caution from the referee. Palzer could hardly find his corner at the bell.

ROUND 18. Palzer stumbled into a terrific left hook and hung on to McCarty's shoulder. McCarty shot a hard left to the jaw and played a terrific tattoo on Palzer's body. The blood flowed from Palzer's eyes and mouth as McCarty shot two hard straight lefts to the head. As Palzer staggered about blindly Referee Eyton rushed to McCarty and held up his right glove.

HOME FROM IOWA.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lippincott have returned from Whiting, Ia., where they went to visit their daughter, Mrs. Lucia Smith, whom they found very pleasantly situated. Her husband has a farm which corners on the town and is well fixed with some of the best land in the west, similar to the best prairie of this state. The place is situated in a valley about sixteen miles wide and much longer and there is a slight elevation in the center and Mr. Lippincott said when they looked at vehicles passing by on the road in the distance where the highway was slightly elevated it seemed as if they were riding above ground. The visitors enjoyed their stay in the Hawkeye state very much.

Burns Is Beaten Almost Insensible When Seconds Throw Up the Sponge in the Seventeenth Round of Bloody Battle.

San Francisco, Jan. 1.—Frankie Burns' seconds threw a towel into the ring in the seventeenth round of his fight with Harlem Tommy Murphy at the open air arena to day after Burns had been beaten almost to insensibility and his face had lost its contour.

Murphy, barring the second round when he ran afoul of a right cross that sent him to mat for a couple of seconds, was at all times Burns' master.

Time was called at 3:14 for the Murphy-Burns fight.

Murphy had every thing his own way in the first round. He displayed dazzling speed and landed time and again left hooks to the jaw drawing blood and all but flooring the Oaklander. Burns floored the Easterner in the second round, catching him with a wicked right chop to the chin. Murphy was up in a jiffy and full of fight. Burns opened the third with two vicious right cloths to the jaw, after which the round resolved itself into a slug-ging match, with honors even. Burns' face was badly cut. Murphy staggered the Californian into a corner volleys with right and left to the face.

The Harlemite opened the fifth with a straight right to jaw that staggered Burns and all but floored him. Burns came back with right and left to the jaw, forcing Murphy to a clinch.

Both men landed often in the sixth, playing constantly for the face. Burns opened a gash over Murphy's mouth.

Murphy, in the seventh, planted his unerring left solidly to the jaw half a dozen times and won his honors by a wide margin.

The eighth round was the most vicious of the fight. After Murphy had peppered the Oaklander with lefts to the face, Burns landed three hard blows to the jaw. A rally followed during which Burns was all but sent through the ropes and he showed the distress signal as the bell clanged.

Murphy had all the better of the ninth, landing with lefts to the face and Burns presented a bloody appearance as he took his seat. Murphy also scored with a right cross that shook the Oaklander from head to foot. Murphy almost floored Burns in the tenth landing right and left punches to the jaw with the men fighting in close.

Burns fought with great gameness in the eleventh but Murphy as in the tenth round, used him as a chopping block.

Burns staggered Murphy in the twelfth, a left to the face, followed quickly with a powerful right his heaviest blow, slowing up the Harlemite. Burns again brought left and right to the face, both men were covered with blood when the round ended.

The thirteenth round was one continuous close range sensation with no blows of consequence landing. Burns slowed up perceptibly in the next two rounds, and seemed to have lost his punching power.

Murphy in the sixteenth almost knocked out his man with right and left punches to the jaw and Burns was carried to his corner.

When the bell rang for the start of the seventeenth, Burns tottered from his seat. Murphy went after him, landing right and left on a defenseless fighter's face. The crowd importuned Referee Griffin to stop the fight and immediately a towel was thrown from Burns' corner as a token of defeat. Murphy was given the decision.

Misses Gaynelle Olinger and Martha Anderson of Franklin were in the city between trains Wednesday. They have just returned from a week's visit with the latter's uncle in Greenview.

NO MORE RUSHING. THE GROWLER

Washington, Dec. Jan. 1.—With the beginning of the new year the inhabitants of the District of Columbia are resolved that they will no longer indulge in the practice of "rushing the growler." The good resolution, however, is not due to and conscientious scruples, but to a drastic regulation adopted by the excise board of the District of Columbia. The new regulation, which went into operation today, forbids any saloonkeeper to sell anything to be drunk on the premises "except in original packages." The latter classification is interpreted by the board to mean bottles and the human stomach. The members of the board specifically say it is their desire to abolish the "bucket trade."

Kirk weighed in at 122 pounds and Kilbane fought at catch weight.

I saved a doctor's bill for one 25c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound." No opiates.

DISEASE CARRIED BY NAILS

Medical Authorities in France Point Out the Danger and Urge Close Trimming.

Paris.—A short finger nail crusade is one of the results of recent revelations as to the French nation's laxity in all matters connected with hygiene.

The movement has been brought about by a series of analyses made by two well-known medical authorities, Drs. A. Sartori and Marc Langlois, of the organic matter stored under the nails of the average person who deals with raw or cooked food.

Micrococcus radiatus, streptococcus, micrococcus, and a prodigious number of eggs of taenia were found to be the common inhabitants of the finger ends of general servants, grocers' assistants, and others who had to handle food.

In fact, all the microbes which are usually found in the air find their way in larger or smaller quantities under the nails, say these authorities, and it is in the interest of the public health that all persons, and especially those connected in any way with the food should have their nails closely trimmed.

SHE BALKED AT SIXTEENTH

Wife Willing to Cook for Fifteen Boarders, But No More—Files Suit for Divorce.

Muncie, Ind.—Here is the point that Judge Frank Ellis of the circuit court must decide: Is a wife, who is caring for the wants of fifteen boarders, justified in rebelling when her husband insists that she shall also cook for the sixteenth and take care of his room? Has the husband, on her refusal, the right to threaten her with physical violence?

The suit is that of Sarah against Charles Williams for divorce. Mrs. Williams says that she is willing to take care of fifteen boarders and roomers, and asked for no assistance, but that the sixteenth boarder was the figurative straw that broke the camel's back.

On the introduction of the sixteenth boarder she says she rebelled, and that the husband cursed and abused

Minneapolis Delivery Wagon Driver Charges That His Employer Violated the Immigration Law.

Minneapolis.—If James Fenlon were an artist, an actor or an opera singer he would not have recourse to the courts, but he declares through his attorney that he is simply a delivery wagon driver and therefore feels he should be deported and should receive a $1,000 judgment from his employer. It is the first case in the history of federal jurisprudence in Minnesota where anyone has asked for deportation.

Fenlon, through his attorney, has brought complaint in federal court against J. C. Wilson, charging violation of the immigration act. The complaint declares that in 1911 Wilson induced Fenlon to migrate from his home in Greenock, Scotland, to the United States, promising that if he would come to Minneapolis he would give him a job as a delivery wagon driver at $12 a week. According to the complaint, it was understood the transportation expenses were to be paid back out of Fenlon's wages.

Fenlon, however, is said to have become dissatisfied and has brought suit under the law whereby none but actors, opera singers or artists may be brought into the country under such a labor agreement without violation of the immigration laws.

Berlin Society's Aim Is to Reform Men's Wearing Apparel—Hat to Be Abolished.

Berlin.—A "Society for the Reform of Men's Apparel" has just been launched for the purpose of inducing men to break away from such "freaks of fashion" as trousers, waistcoats, shirts, suspenders, collars, neckties and hats.

For working and the ordinary purpose of wear the reformers desire to substitute smock or blouse suits, and instead of the prevailing form of evening dress, knee breeches and high buttoned jackets, which shall obviate the necessity of either shirts or linen collars.

The hat, if the reformers have their way, will be entirely abolished, although they are willing to allow it to disappear gradually by accustoming men to wear a straw head covering of some sort, both summer and winter, until they learn to do without a hat altogether.

Another novelty which is advocated is that each man shall design his own clothes.

WOULD TEACH BOYS TO BOX

London Rector Says Every Youngster Should Learn the Art of Self-Defense.

London.—"Every boy ought to be taught to box and wrestle," declared Rev. John Gower, the eighty-two-year-old rector of Trefriw (Wales) church, known locally as "the sporting parson," to his Sunday evening congregation in a sermon in defense of the "manly arts."

The aged minister pointed with pride to his own career in the ring and on the mat. He had met thousands of strong men, he said, and had vanquished them all, except his two brothers, with whom he brought off "draws." He added that he was still an expert boxer and invited any of his auditors who might be skeptical to take him on. The challenge was not accepted.

The boys affected were Raymond Fox, Irwin and Harry Whennan, William Lawless, George Follmer and Rutter Ohl.

Burden became unruly in Joy's establishment and the proprietor attempted to eject him. When the two clinched the negro fell to the floor and the weapon, which he pulled from his pocket as he arose, was put out of commission. Burden is under arrest.
